TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 13 1862

Government Land Policy in Oregon

Just so soon as the office holders under the last administration were discharged from the Land Offices in Oregon measures were taken by some of them to prevent the further surveys of the public lands. We apprehend that these efforts have had effect. In the present pecuniary condition of Government affairs any expenses, not absolutely required, are likely to be cut off, and especially this may be the case in relation to the survey of public lands in Oregon and Washington Territory—where the public land department is and always has been, a great tax upon the public treasury. The Washington Standard in allusion to this subject says that a system is likely to be adopted by Government not to make more appropriations of money for the survey of public lands than is received for land sales. If so, under the present system of disposing of public lands in Oregon and Washington, no additional surveys can be made for the present, for the reason that the receipts for lands will by no means even pay the expense of keeping up the land offices. The Standard suggests that this state of things might be changed by throwing the lands into market. Much of the land, it is believed, now surveyed, would be taken up and paid for, if this system should be adopted. A large amount of lands are held by pre-emption, which will not be paid for until the lands are brought into market.

The Homestead Bill, we presume, is, or will be, a law, giving the occupant of land five years to pay, if he lives upon it. This will put off the payments for a long time. Many would prefer to buy lands and pay for them down, as they would be enabled to do, if the lands were put into market.

The Standard recommends that all lands which have been surveyed two years should be thrown into market.

A PANAMA CONGRESS.—The movements of France, England and Spain in Mexico have alarmed the people and the press of the South American Republics. President Mosquera of New Granada, has proposed the holding of a general Congress of the Spanish American States, to concoct measures of safety and security. We cannot but believe that France, England and Spain, have seized upon the occasion of our domestic troubles to interfere in Mexican affairs. The Munroe doctrine may sleep temporarily, but it is not dead.

COMING TO THE MINES.—By the last steamer many persons from the Western States arrived, on their way to the mines. They represent that the Overland emigration to this coast will be great the present season, but will be extensively lessened by the want of means among the emigrating classes. Grand opportunities exist for the purchase of improved farms in this valley. We want fifty thousand additional thorough going farmers in the Willamette Valley with their wives and children.

INDIAN FIGHT IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.—News was received from Tehama May 5th, to the effect that a fight had occurred between Indians and whites on Sunday near Nome Lackee, in which Mr Shannon, from Round Valley, was killed and another man badly wounded, and seventeen Indians killed. As far as we are able to learn the particulars, it appears that some thirty Pit River Indians escaped from Nome Cult Reservation making their way for Pit river. The Indians were well armed, and commenced their depredations by killing a man by the name of Watson near John James, on Stoney creek, also an Indian shepherd boy. About thirty whites got together, and with the assistance of some Nome Lackee Indians, followed the Pit Rivers, overhauling them near Jake Henderson's—a battle ensued in which Mr. Shannon who had followed the Indians from Round Valley, lost his life. Seventeen Indians were killed, four taken prisoners and the rest escaped, followed by the whites.

A MISNOMER.—A paper printed, published and circulated up in Oregon, under the name and style of "The Oregon Union," found its way to our sanctum the other day. It is one of the dirtiest secesh sheets that we have yet struck, and an injunction should be put upon the proprietors desecrating the name of "Union" to such vile purposes.—Independent.

UNPLEASANT POSITION.—Ex Senator Mason at the opening of the British Parliament, sat next to the black embassador from Hayti, and didn't dare to turn up his nose lest the British abolitionists might suspect him of thinking himself better than a nigger. So says Prentice.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Fort Macon taken—Settlement of the War talked of—Doings at Yorktown—Fort Wright—Foreign News

CHICAGO, May 2d.—Fort Macon [near Beaufort, N. C.] surrendered on the 25th of April, after a bombardment of ten and a half hours. During the bombardment seven men were killed and eighteen wounded.

WASHINGTON, April 29th.—Our batteries were planted behind the heavy sand bank, the breaching batteries being only one thousand yards distant from the fort. The garrison were allowed the honors of war—the officers retaining their side arms. An official dispatch says that 400 prisoners were taken.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 1st.—The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal has the following in regard to Fort Macon: The fort becoming wholly untenable, was surrendered. All the guns inside the fort opposite to the side attacked were dismounted, all but three on the enemy's batteries being also dismounted.

The Richmond Dispatch of to-day says:—"The panic on the subject of the scarcity of food is one of the most causeless, and exists only in the imagination. How causeless the panic alluded to is, may be inferred from the fact that in another column of the same paper butter is quoted at $1 40 per pound."

The following additional items regarding the fall of New Orleans are all that can be gleaned from the Southern papers:

Commodore Farragut had proposed terms of capitulation to the Mayor, which the latter had accepted.

New Orleans, at the last accounts was held by a battalion of marines from the Federal squadron.

General Butler's forces were within a few miles of the city, having landed on the shore of Lake Ponchartrain.

WASHINGTON, May 2d.—The Southern papers congratulate themselves that the yellow fever will soon be in New Orleans, and that Lovell's army, and now join Beauregard in his march to the Ohio. They also say that Memphis, Charleston and Savannah are seriously threatened, and urge the policy of destroying everything valuable.

An up train on the Memphis and Charleston road, carrying the 19th South Carolina Regiment to Corinth, met with an accident, whereby twenty of the soldiers were killed.

ST. LOUIS, May 2d.—A gentleman who left Memphis on Saturday last says that from that city to New Orleans the water was very high, causing great apprehensions.

The Banks were about to inaugurate a new policy by resuming specie payments up to twenty per cent. of their issues, throwing out discredited Confederate notes.

Throughout Louisiana, with the exception of office holders and army contractors, there was a very general desire for a settlement of differences and a close of the war.

HUNTSVILLE (Ala.) May 1st.—An expedition consisting of four regiments of infantry, with two pieces of artillery, under the immediate command of General Mitchell made a descent on Bridgeport, Ala., yesterday. At the first fire the rebels broke and ran. In all Alabama north of the Tennessee river there floats no flag but the old flag.

WASHINGTON, May 2d.—A dispatch from the army at Yorktown dated yesterday says:

On Tuesday a steamboat loaded with troops, probably from West Point, thirty miles above, was seen before Yorktown, indicating that the enemy were being reinforced. A battery at the mouth of Wormly Creek, commanding the rebel water batteries at Yorktown and Gloucester, opened yesterday on the rebel shipping, distant two miles. The rebels left hastily. The guns were then turned on the works at Yorktown and Gloucester, and were soon answered by the large pivot gun on Yorktown Height. The fire continued briskly for two hours. We sustained no damage, though the enemy's shell fell close. Some of our shells were seen to explode directly over the enemy's parapet, which the moment before was covered with men. What damage they sustained is of course not known.

WASHINGTON, May 2d.—Gen. Prentiss and seven hundred Federal prisoners arrived at Selma, Alabama. The officers are to be sent to Talladega, the privates to Montgomery.

Commodore Hollins passed through Columbia, South Carolina, on Saturday, en route to Richmond. He is amazed at the fall of New Orleans, and states that there were one hundred heavy guns between Fort Jackson and the city, and numerous boarding parties were organized to capture the national vessels at all hazards; that the gunboat Louisiana was ready, and that the gunboat Mississippi, though unfinished, could be brought into action.

CAIRO, May 2d.—Col. Lew Wallace's Division occupied Purdy, Tennessee, Tuesday, without opposition. The enemy's left flank had rested in the town. We have dispatches from Fort Wright dated yesterday.

ST. LOUIS, May 1st.—A detachment of cavalry from Forsyth (Mo.) on the 24th destroyed an extensive saltpeter manufactory at Yellville, Arkansas, and burned the building.

Major Hubbard, with one hundred and forty men of the First Missouri Cavalry, attacked and routed Cols. Coffee and Stenwright with four hundred Indians, on the 26th, killing and wounding thirty, and taking large quantities of arms and sixty-two prisoners.

WASHINGTON, May 1st.—The Petersburgh (Va.) Express says that New Orleans was captured by our gunboats, they being encased with wet hay, so that neither hot nor cold shot were of any use. The Louisiana, mounting twenty-seven guns, was sunk, the Express says, by our steel pointed conical shot. Their cotton was destroyed by fire and the sugar emptied into the river. The specie of the banks was all removed.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Senate yesterday refused by four majority to refer the subject of the confiscation of rebel property to a select committee. This is regarded as a test vote between the friends and opponents of the measure, and as the triumph of the former.

The Senate to-day confirmed Charles G. Lathrop as Collector of New Orleans.

Latham, McDougall, Nesmith and Stark, voted for referring to a select committee the Confiscation Bill.

Carlile (from Virginia) introduced a bill into the Senate yesterday as a substitute for the Homestead Bill now pending, which gives each person in the naval and military service of the Government a hundred and sixty acres of land in lieu of the dollars bounty. A strong effort will be made by Eastern members to substitute this bill for the homestead measure which has already passed the House.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—A merchant from New Mexico, who arrived yesterday, confirms the abandonment of Santa Fe by the rebels. They were destitute, and retreating from the Territory. At Santa Fe they levied on the merchants, in some cases as high as one hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of goods, giving in Confederate scrip. No doubt exists as to the ability of the Federal troops to keep out the invaders, but an increased force is necessary to keep in subjection the Apaches and Navajos, who have been committing depredations for months past, stealing everything they could lay hands on. All the Federal Territorial officers had returned to Santa Fe and resumed the performance of their duties, except Chief Justice Benedict, who is now on his way to the States.

CAIRO, May —.—The news from Pittsburg Landing is of the highest importance. The transmission of it by our telegraph is prohibited at present.

Memphis papers of the 20th say that a meeting held the night before concluded to burn the [illegible] upon the appearance of the Federal fleet. [illegible] urgently call on the people to rally to Gen. Pierce at Fort Wright as the only means of salvation for the city.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—The correspondent of the Commercial with Halleck's army gives the following official figures of our losses at the battle of Shiloh: [illegible] killed, 7,882 wounded, and [illegible] missing. About 300 wounded have since died. Gen. Sherman's division suffered most in killed, the number being [illegible]. [illegible] next with [illegible] killed. [illegible] Of Prentiss' division 1,800 are missing; of Wallace's division 1,100 are missing. Hurlbut's division has 1,400 wounded; Prentiss 1,400; McClernand's 1,150; Wallace's 1,002. Our burial parties report 2,500 to 3,000 rebels found dead on the field.

The Memphis Argus of April 20th publishes a list of the killed, wounded and missing of forty rebel regiments at the battle of Shiloh [Pittsburg]. It foots up 927 killed, and [illegible] missing.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A dispatch from before Yorktown yesterday, says that two deserters came into our lines and report that Gen. Johnston and Gen. Magruder made speeches last week to the troops, calling on them to use every exertion to defeat the Northern invaders—that if they were defeated at Yorktown the cause of the Confederacy was gone; that they were determined to rest their cause on this, their last battle.

CHICAGO, May 3.—The Memphis Argus of last Monday contains the following dispatch from Corinth, April 28: Beauregard is moving large bodies of troops southward. Some say to [illegible], others [illegible] afoot. A few have gone west. It is generally understood that he is evacuating, though he declines answering questions. He says President Davis understands his movements.

FORT WRIGHT, April 28.—There has been no change in affairs here since Saturday. The Yankee fleet has gone higher up the stream, and is now lying opposite, firing. From the Avalanche of the same date, we learn: Reinforcements are being hurried forward to Fort Wright, where, it is expected that we will make a desperate stand against Commodore Foote's fleet.

WASHINGTON, May —.—Dispatches from Halleck make no mention of the evacuation of Corinth.

Deserters from the rebel army continue coming in daily from different directions. They all agree in the statement that the rebel force at Yorktown is about a hundred thousand, and allude to a very general depression among both officers and men. The news of our recent victories is kept secret from them.

It is understood that a Board recently appointed by the Secretary of the Navy to examine the Stevens battery has, after a full investigation, reported that it should be finished, but with some modifications.

The latest accounts show that there are one hundred and sixty eight Brigadier Generals.

Senator Sumner's bill, of which he gave notice yesterday, for the repeal of three sections of the Act of 1808, regulating the coast wise slave trade, makes the transportation of slaves from one part of the United States to another a penal offense.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Madrid, April 19.—Spain will not withdraw her troops from Mexico; they will stay until the satisfaction demanded is obtained.

The Austrian Government has sent two naval engineers to America to inspect the Monitor, the Merrimac, and the new coast fortifications.

Great interest is manifested in all parts of Italy in the recent language of Palmerston's during the Italian debate in the House of Commons.

The Russian Minister of the Interior has made two imperial propositions, one for accelerating the liberation of the serfs, the other for creating a system of Parliamentary representation. The propositions have been referred to the Council of the Emperor.

It was rumored that the French Police had arrested twelve hundred workmen upon charges of sedition.

HALIFAX, May 1.—The London Times editorially expatiates on the importance of the struggle for New Orleans, and says the occupation of that place by the Federals would be a terrible tightening over the great artery of the seceded States.

The World sees no exhaustion in the North—no discouragement in the South. Federal predictions to the contrary notwithstanding. It believes that no probable military achievement on either side will be sufficient to bring the parties to terms, and adds that the Washington Government should be allowed one more chance, and if that trial fails, the Great Powers should peremptorily interfere in behalf of the well being of mankind. That this has not been done before is owing to the generosity of England.

SAN FRANCISCO ITEMS.—May 4.—The Hardy [illegible] yesterday, counsel for the defense said that they would introduce the McConnell platform by and by in evidence, to show the disloyalty of men of that party.

A rumor is afloat among the secessionists here that General Wright is to be suspended.

FROM THE DALLES.—Our correspondent under date of May 10th, says:

Had rain last night, and snow on the hills, cold and rainy to-day.

A report is in circulation to-day that Powder river is [illegible], that miners who wintered there cannot make three dollars a day. I cannot form an opinion of those mines from all that is heard from there yet.

Agency Notice.—Mr. [illegible] P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements or to contract business for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. Office—No. 171½ Washington street, nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

The attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen is respectfully directed to the New Styles of DRESS GOODS and CLOTHING just received by the steamer, consisting of French Poplins, Brilliants, Challis, Bareges, Silks, [illegible] De Laines, Ducals, French Hats, New Style Bonnets, and the Latest Styles of [illegible] Cloaks, together with a full assortment of Spring [illegible], Business Suits, Summer Raglans, French Cloth [illegible] Coats, Duster Linens, Light Silk Vests and New Style Hats, all got up expressly for the present season. All the articles are now ready for sale, and can be seen at HARKERS, opposite the Upper Wharf.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already spoken of in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of Europe the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. [illegible] an illustrious example is shining light among the philo[illegible] Europe and Dr Czapkay has [illegible] as a proof of which the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Doctor still [illegible] Sacramento street, [illegible] the building of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the [illegible] card [illegible] column of this paper. Persons [illegible] time in our [illegible] in their letters and they will get immediate attention. [illegible] Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. [illegible]

[illegible] OREGONIAN has a larger [illegible] LIST than any other [illegible] published in this City.

[illegible] OREGONIAN [illegible] at the Franklin [illegible] opposite the Post Office

[illegible] THE MINES.—Mr Henry Fuller [illegible] county, crossed some three hundred [illegible] of fine beef cattle on the ferry [illegible] day They are bound for the [illegible] mines.

[illegible]—In different portions of the [illegible] of stagnant water are found [illegible] should be drained They undoubtedly [illegible] city unhealthy

[illegible] COURT.—George Thomas, having [illegible] too freely in old rye on Sunday [illegible] lodging on the side walk—violating [illegible] No. 10 He got two days in the [illegible] yesterday, for his indiscretion.

[illegible] LAWRENCE.—The benefit of Miss Law [illegible] last night was a rouser

[illegible] Upper Columbia and the Mines

[illegible] steamer Julia arrived last night, bringing [illegible] 100 in gold dust per Wells, Fargo & [illegible] express, and a large amount in the [illegible] of passengers We learn that the Co[illegible] river is rising rapidly, while the [illegible] river is falling At the Cascades, the [illegible] some eight inches during Sunday [illegible] The snow on Salmon river had not [illegible] disappeared to give all new com[illegible] opportunity to prospect but those who [illegible] open were making good wages [illegible] is said of the Powder river mines [illegible] indebted to Mr Franklin of Mossman [illegible] Salmon river Express, for a copy of [illegible] Walla Statesman of the 12th inst [illegible] we take the following items

[illegible] Robinson, the actress was mar[illegible] Walla, on the 4th inst., to Chas [illegible]

[illegible] ferries have been established on [illegible] Clearwater rivers

[illegible] Mrs. Chas Pope, Mr Beatty, and [illegible] family, are giving theatrical en[illegible] at Walla Walla

[illegible] divorces were granted at the last [illegible] District Court

[illegible] & Co. and McBride have united [illegible], and will hereafter make reg[illegible] between the upper country and [illegible]

[illegible] that Lieut Mullan had been [illegible] the road expedition is incorrect [illegible] only is ordered back.

[illegible] the man who was shot by Crabb, [illegible] the 7th inst.

From Salmon.

[illegible] indebted to Mr McBride for the [illegible] items from Salmon river and the [illegible]:

[illegible] ult., the snow was rapidly dis[illegible] from the mountains, and in the [illegible] remained only about three feet deep [illegible] who opened their claims last fall [illegible] to work, being able to run [illegible] and sluices from six to eight [illegible] day.

[illegible] of new buildings were being [illegible] Florence—some of them, intended [illegible] houses, of a very substantial [illegible]

[illegible] three hundred men were engaged in [illegible] provisions from the summit of the [illegible] into the diggings They were re[illegible] cents per pound for packing [illegible] of provisions are on the decline [illegible] selling in Florence at 75 cents per [illegible] $1 50, and other articles were [illegible] on the decrease

[illegible] to the mines is now in good con[illegible] about 15 miles on Craig's [illegible], which is very miry, but that is [illegible] improving and will be in fair travel [illegible] by the middle of the present [illegible]

[illegible] many pack trains were on the road [illegible] waters interfered somewhat with [illegible]. They will probably be able [illegible] the diggings next week

[illegible] the river was very high—be[illegible] inches higher than at any time last [illegible] and still rising Much of the lower [illegible] the town site was overflowed.

From Bitter Root valley

[illegible] arrival of Mr Foolall Lieut Mul[illegible] expressman, who reached this city May [illegible] have news from the Bitter Root and [illegible] mountains to the 7th April

[illegible] winter had been very severe in th[illegible]. Cattle and horses were dying all [illegible] country in great numbers from the [illegible] want of food In some instances [illegible] had lost all their stock Messrs Hig[illegible] Worden, the Jesuit Fathers at the Mis[illegible] Indian Reservation Lieut Mullan's [illegible], the escort Mr Brooks and oth[illegible] lost great numbers No similar win[illegible] been known in the country since 1846 [illegible] Indians and whites had suffered very [illegible]

[illegible] Mullan's expedition was encamped [illegible] Cantonment Wright and partly on [illegible] river, in tents They had com[illegible] a large bridge, 235 feet long across the [illegible] river The ice being frozen nearly [illegible] bottom of the river, they were enabled [illegible] the bridge by working on the ice—[illegible] had also cut a road two and a half miles [illegible] much of it through rock, along the Hell [illegible] river, to avoid four crossings of that [illegible]. The expedition intended starting for [illegible] Missouri some time in May or as soon as [illegible] grass was sufficiently high for animals

[illegible] express from Fort Benton reached the [illegible] Root on the 18th February, bringing [illegible] of a battle between the Gros Ventres and [illegible] Blackfeet Indians—many killed on both sides [illegible] Capt Clark, Indian Agent for the Blackfoot [illegible] had arrived there with a packtrain, bringing [illegible] annuities from St Louis

[illegible] The Snake and Bannock Indians were en[illegible] camped in large numbers in Beaver Head [illegible] Valley and were making inroads into Deer [illegible] They had stolen a number of horses [illegible] and killed one man and a woman be[illegible] Gold and Flint creeks These Indians [illegible] with them a large number of American [illegible] which, it is supposed were stolen from [illegible] emigrants last summer.

[illegible] Worden and others were about starting to St Louis to bring up goods for the mines and valley

The miners at Deer Lodge had been unable to work or prospect owing to the severe weather They had staked out their claims and were awaiting spring to commence operation

It is thought probable that the loss sustained by the Indians in stock this winter annuities last year and the general destitution that prevails among them may add to their predatory habits and cause at least anxiety for the future security of the upper country

From Colville

We have dates from Colville to the 1st inst The citizens of Colville valley feeling themselves, as they justly have been slighted by the Government in the discontinuance of the mail to that place recently drew up a petition addressed to Jeff Davis, praying him to establish a mail line from the Southern Confederacy, through the Rocky mountains, to Colville The petition was signed by every resident in the valley but two who said they "thought a joke was a joke but they would be d—d if they would sign a petition addressed to Jeff Davis if they never got a mail" and spoiled the joke by their refusal The petitioners concluded the joke was spoiled and did not forward it to the rebel dignitary While we don't blame them for "casting about" for some redress for their grievances we say hurrah for the two who wouldn't sign!

A pack train loaded with flour left Colville some two weeks ago for Salmon river via Lewiston A batteau loaded with the same article left also about the same time, intending to ascend Snake river as far as the mouth of Salmon Matters at Colville are dull, and most of the citizens of that valley talk of going to Salmon river

RETURNING FROM POWDER RIVER.—Parties are now arriving from Powder, with more or less dissatisfaction Yet all with whom we have conversed seem inclined to the opinion that gold does exist in greater or less quantities in that vicinity The snow and high water seems to be the principal difficulty which impedes a thorough prospecting

SUNLIGHT ON THE QUILT

It covered a wretched pallet,
  In attic room forlorn
A sunbeam crept through the broken pane,
  And brightened its colors worn

The light of the fair, fresh morning
  Upon the widow's eyes grew wet,
As she watched the spot on her faded quilt
  Where its rosy foot was set,
And like the touch of a fairy
  To the widow of threescore
That sunbeam wakened her [illegible] head,
  Her dreams of the days of yore!

This patch was sewed in the garden,
  On a sunny noon in May,
And that, in a field, where a band long dead,
  Was gathering in the hay,
This delicate star was fashioned
  By a group now still and white
And that was the scrap of the muslin dress
  She wore on her wedding night.

Ah! the old familiar muslin!
  Ah! the timid blushing bride!
The surpliced priest and the silent group,
  And the dear one at her side,
How swelled the heart of the widow
  With quiet, thoughtful tears,
To look on the picture the sunbeam brought
  From the halls of buried years.

And the attic was filled with shadows,
  With the tender, dim eyed guests,
Who flitted around the time worn quilt,
  And spoke from their hollow breasts,
In a noiseless, joyous whisper,
  Of the past and its pleasant store,
Till the widow lifted her voice and wailed
  For the things that come no more!

Oh, friend! 'tis a mournful picture,
  Believe me, if thou wilt—
But joy and sorrow alike are hid
  In the folds of a patchwork quilt!

The Closest Shave of My Life.

BY A LONDON DETECTIVE.

The prison at D—— is, every way considered, under a better organized and surer system of administration than any similar institution I have known. I have seen many, and looked somewhat closely into their methods of management and discipline, and have often seen much to approve; but the prison at D—— surpasses all the rest. Visitors, of whom, very properly, but few are admitted, are amazed at the regularity, the order, and most singular of all, the air of security and exceeding quiet that prevails.

As we wandered through the chambers in the freer part of the prison, we came to one from which a man was looking so anxiously that he did not hear us enter. When he turned round, his eyes were glistening with tears. The warden said he did nothing but stand at that window at all times when he was unoccupied. He was a sailor, we learned, whose offense was that he had beaten almost to death a comrade for speaking slightingly of his wife. He was in for three years, six months of which had passed, and he was one of the best men about the prison. They had found out that he was accomplished—that there was no better barber anywhere; so he was elevated above his fellows, to a dignified position and the responsibility of razors.

"He has shaved me many a time better than I could have done it myself. Would you like a prison shave, gentlemen?" said the warden.

I thought there was something quite taking in the idea, and acknowledged myself to be touched favorably with the proposition.

"Johnson, you will shave this gentleman," said the warden.

I threw off my coat, and settled myself comfortably in the big chair. Johnson made grave preparations.

I always hated a razor. It was a villainous necessity. I wonder if anybody thinks it delightful, that hissing of the sharp steel over the cheeks and that slow scrape over the throat, with the skin drawn drum tight.

When my face was shining with the soap, the warden said—

"We will leave you for five minutes. Is that time enough, Johnson?"

"Quite time enough, sir," answered Johnson.

The prisoner and I were left alone. My companions went away in another direction from that we had been pursuing, and the warden swung the door wide open as he passed through, leaving it unclosed. From my position I saw them walk along the top of the wall, until they came to the corner, where they spoke a little with the officer in charge. Then they moved on, officer and all, out of sight.

Upon each corner of the prison wall a guard is always stationed, well armed, to watch that no attempts at escape are made. The moment this one disappeared, I felt a sort of faint shiver of the razor against my lip. Immediately after my barber ceased operations, walked leisurely to the door, and turning, passed an instant at the window where we had found him when we had entered. Then he came back and resumed his work. I felt vaguely alarmed.

Presently the prisoner spoke. His voice was very low, quite a whisper, indeed, and he cut his words short. But how distinct they were?

"Do you hear me, sir?" he asked.

"Yes," said I.

"It's a ticklish thing, this shaving, isn't it?" said he. "But my hand is always steady. I can do what I please with a razor—just what I please. Be good enough to keep still, very still, just now. I'm close on to a large vein you see, right in your neck. Keep very still and don't stir. I know what would happen, and so do you, if you stirred or spoke a word."

Good God! These were hideous words; but the glare of the man's eye, as he came round in front of me, was appalling. I could not have uttered a syllable if I had died otherwise.

"Now," said he, "listen, but don't move." and he pressed the flat blade against my throat as if by way of warning. "I don't like this. I can't stand it. I'm going! And so help me God, if you lift a finger to stop me, or make one noise, both of us will have to die! I would rather not hurt you; but—remember!"

He sprang away and caught up my coat and hat which lay near, still keeping the razor in his hand. The moment its frightful contact was removed, my inertness vanished. I leaped up, seized the chair in which I had been sitting and shouted lustily. He turned upon me like a tiger.

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a TIGHT LOCK STITCH alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,
SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urino-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and perfect cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The documents [illegible] imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty thus publicly to express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of an uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their torturing [illegible]. By one I was told my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicines which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With this view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.
B. F. FI[illegible]

State of California, County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 24, 18[illegible].

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, being entirely [illegible], and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were the [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspaper. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYNES.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies I yet felt [illegible] the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
